

Please do not block XM from providing traffic and weather. With this service I can keep informed no matter where I am. If local broadcasters are losing listeners, they should be making changes and not using the FCC to crush their competition.
Thank you

Mark Proulx